

Proud Builder of the Idaho Anne Frank Human Rights Memorial

The Idaho Human Rights Education Center is pleased to announce in partnership with Youth Service America and Global Youth Service Day

“The New American,” a multi-media performance by Living Voices of Seattle on the immigrant journey to the United States.

FRIDAY, APRIL 23 | Free Performances at 12:30 & 2:00 p.m.

In conjunction with Docent led tours of the Idaho Anne Frank Human Rights Memorial
Hayes Auditorium, Boise Public Library
715 S. Capitol Blvd. in downtown Boise

Please join us for a free performance and share the journey of The New American, from the turmoil of the old country, to the promise of America. The immigrant journey includes the steamship passage of 1910, the path through Ellis Island, and the sweatshops of the lower east side of Manhattan. Learn what American liberty and opportunity means to people around the world.
Please call Dax at (208) 345-0304 to reserve space.

I have duties to my community...human rights!
-Artist Statement

The mission of the Idaho Human Rights Education Center is to promote respect for human dignity and diversity through education and to foster individual responsibility to work for peace and justice.

For more information on the Center's programming, please visit our website at: www.idaho-humanrights.org

Scotty Martinez, 2009 Human Rights Art Contest
Grand Prize Winner
2nd Grade, Garden City Community School